One of the most difficult decisions in any type of genealogy publishing is deciding when to stop researching the various family lines and when to publish your findings for others to be able to make use of. Having previously done several other books I can honestly advise that every possible family line has never been researched by every available avenue. This gets proven more readily with each passing year. New genealogy information becomes available with each passing day. It is now believed that Man's knowledge and available information doubles every eighteen months.

This book is published knowing that it is incomplete. I acknowledge that I have yet to research many of the various family branches in this book. A few years ago I wrote Ancestors and Relatives of Reverdy Lewin Orrell, IV, which detailed my son's complete ancestry. Some of his direct line ancestors were traced back thirteen generations. This current series of books doesn't go back in time; rather, they come forward. Each book begins with one of our son's 'end of the line' direct line ancestor and brings that ancestor's line to the present day. Therefore the reader will find our son, Reverdy Lewin Orrell, IV as a descendant in every book in this series. Obviously, his direct line from the progenitor in each book is very well documented. Some of the other descendancy lines from the progenitor have not been researched at all.

Why then, might you ask, is this series of books even being produced, if they are not completely researched and documented? The answer is quite simple - all of the family trees and branches, all of the genealogy data, all of the various source notes - do absolutely no good to anyone else when they are stored in my computer databases, census databases, and file cabinets. While it is my intention to eventually work on many of these lines again; I can't be sure that each project will ever be completed. Therefore, while I am young enough, in good health, and have the necessary funds, I am doing this series of fourteen books. There are several other family lines that are absolutely huge; some have been very well documented by other researchers. There are a few other lines that I will be publishing at a later date.

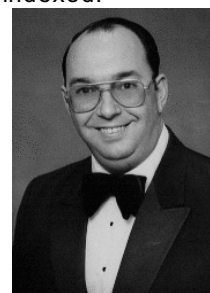

I do not consider myself an expert on any of these lines. Many persons helped me out by researching several of these lines before me. In all cases I have added to their research. Please note that the notes are not rewritten and polished. The books in this series are intended to aid and assist other genealogists who are interested in these various family lines.

Each book in this series is published on a very limited basis. A copy of each has been placed in the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C., Daughters of the American Revolution Library in Washington, D.C., Latter Day Saints (LDS) Family Library in Utah, the Maryland State Archives in Annapolis, Maryland, and the Maryland Historical Society in Baltimore, Maryland.

An index of each book appears in the back. Please bear in mind that only descendants, their spouses and their spouse's parents are indexed. Persons mentioned in the various notes are not indexed.

Nicholas died 20 Jun 1897, in Baltimore City, MD, and was buried 23 Jun 1897, in Loudon Park Cem, Baltimore City, MD.

NOTES for Nicholas follow: Buried at Loudon Park Cemetery on Lots # 548 and # 549 Section YY (near the railroad tracks). In all there are 13 persons buried in these 2 lots.

Death certificate A 97277 (Hard copy in file) states that on June 20, 1897 Nicholass (sic) Gross died.

He was 39 years, 4 months and 10 days old. He was a white, married male. His occupation was a Driver. He was born in Baltimore and lived there his entire life. His place of death was 341 Forrest Street. The cause of death was Pulmonary Tuberculosis and exhaustion. He had been ill for 6 months.

The 1870 Maryland Census points to a birth year of about 1855 showing him to be about 15 years old in July of 1870.

Obituary: None found in the Baltimore Morning Sun.

Hard copy of a Permit for Interment is in file.

Census: Nicholas Gross is located in the 1880 MD Census (Hard copy in file). He is located in Baltimore County (not City) in the 1st Election District on page 20, line 14 of ED 220. The census was recorded on the 7th day of June, 1880.

Nicholas is shown as a white male, 22 years old and the head of the household. He was employed as a butcher for the entire year. He is shown as being born in Maryland. A line is drawn through the box for the birthplace of his mother and father. It appears that the person supplying the information for the census taker did not know their birthplace. Also with Nicholas was his wife Mary, a white female, 19 years of age. She is shown as keeping house. She was born in Maryland and both her parents are shown as being born in Wurtemberg. A daughter, Kate is shown as a white female 7/12 of a year old. This would set her birth at about Dec 1879.

It is interesting to note that Nicholas and Mary apparently were operating a boarding house. With them at this location were Michale Fallen, a 50 year old laborer and his wife Margany, aged 53; George Steinacker, a 24 year old florist and his wife Jennie and their son Raymond; and Laner Neighoff a 43 year old single female.

Located in the Baltimore City Directory: 1879: Nicholas, butcher, 753 W. Lombard St. (confirmed by 1880 Census) 1887: Nicholas, laborer, 38 Claremont Ave 1888: Nicholas, laborer, 38 Claremont Ave 1889: Nicholas, laborer, Carrollton 1890: Nicholas, laborer, Carrollton 1891: Nicholas, driver, 24 Hafer 1892: Nicholas, laborer, 205 Bentalou 1893: Nicholas, bottler, 303 Bentalou 1894: Nicholas, laborer, 303 Bentalou 1895: Nicholas, laborer, 303 Bentalou 1896: Nicholas, bottler, 303 Bentalou 1897: Nicholas, bottler, 341 Forrest W (address confirmed by Death Certificate)

(NOTE: No other Gross's are shown at any of these addresses in the same year.)

Possible clues to his parents. The first time Nicholas appeared in the BCD was in 1879 at the age of 21. From 1864 to 1878 (the year before our Nicholas appeared) a Nicholas Gross, tailor, at 89 N. Caroline Street appeared in the BCD. Also during this time a Mrs. Mary L. Gross also appeared at the same address, along with a Henry Gross, cigar maker. It is possible that Nicholas Gross, tailor, was the father of Nicholas and that our Nicholas did not appear until the death of his father. This indeed appears to be the case as confirmed by the 1870 Maryland Census show father Nicholas, mother Mary, brother Henry (cigar maker), our Nicholas and sister Mary.

Karolina next married (2) George L. EITEL after Jun 1897.

No children have yet been identified.

George died after 7 Jan 1913.

NOTES for George follow: Information obtained from the obituary of his wife, Mary Eckert Gross. Living at 2221 Booth Street in 1913 at the time of his wife's death.
